

Digital Storytelling Evaluation Form

Name _____ Final Grade _____

After watching the student's digital story once then you should watch the story again and evaluate the story based on the listed criteria.

Story (Script) – Did the digital story have a story? The story should be concise and focused on one story with a central theme.

25 points _____

Comments: _____

Narration – The narration should be clear and audible and should not compete with the music or other sound effects and pacing should match story.

20 points _____

Comments: _____

Visual – Did the visual images match the story? The images should add to the story's overall value and aesthetic value.

20 points _____

Comments: _____

Music – The music should match the theme of the story and the selection should add to the overall rhythm of the story. The music should not compete with the narration.

15 points _____

Comments: _____

Overall – The production value of the story should cover the titles, transitions and how the pictures, narration, music and other sound effects played a role in creating the story.

20 points _____

Comments: _____
